

Fireside Chat

Alta Historical Society

“History of Skiing in the Wasatch”

Presented by Alexis Kelner

Tuesday, February 22nd* Rustler Lodge * 4:00 pm

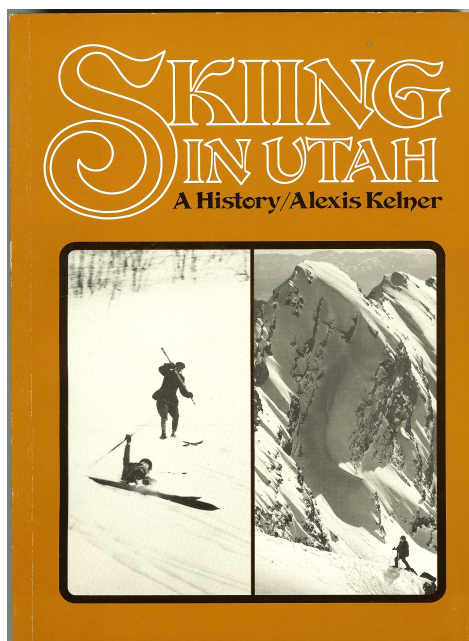

Photo by Steve Lewis

Alexis Kelner

Alexis is a noted ski historian and one of the modern pioneers of backcountry skiing in Utah. He is the author of Skiing in Utah, a History and co-author with David Hanscom of the backcountry skiing guides Wasatch I, Wasatch II and Wasatch III. Alexis is an avid conservationist with committed to protecting the beautiful mountains of Utah. He has a keen knowledge of the Wasatch and brings us a unique perspective of skiing in Utah and its interesting history. Among his many interesting pursuits, Alexis also serves on the board of Save Our Canyons and the Wasatch Mountain Club.

Alta Historical Society is sponsored by

The Fireside Chats are supported by:

